Regarding: Overly Door Company Surplus Item Website

Overly Door Company is pleased to announce that its Surplus Item Website is now online. The Overly Surplus Item Website offers to qualified buyers the opportunity to purchase surplus doors and frames, materials such as sheet steel, and used equipment as these items become available.

The site features full product descriptions of items for sale, including photographs. All items are sold on an "as-is" basis. Even though every precaution is taken to accurately represent items and all equipment is in working order unless noted, on-site appraisals of the items for sale are encouraged.

Buyers may create an account with the Overly Surplus Items site, or shop as a guest. Crating (if necessary) and shipping charges are not included in the prices shown.
